Special Notice Regarding the Uploading of Laptop Answers from the October 2005 First-Year Law Students' Examination

The website for uploading examination answers from those using laptop computers to take the October 2005 First-Year Law Students' Examination is operational, and many answers have already been received. Due to the effects of Hurricane Wilma, however, applicants may not be able to contact ExamSoft's technical support center in Florida if they are having difficulties with the upload process. Because of this, the deadline for uploading laptop computer generated examination answers has been extended to noon, 12:00 p.m. (PDT), Wednesday, October 26, 2005. If applicants have problems with the upload process after following all the instructions that were provided by ExamSoft while trying to upload their answers, they should contact the State Bar Office of Admissions at (213) 765-1527 between 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday. Applicants receiving notice online that the upload of their answers was successful are asked not to call the Office of Admissions to reconfirm receipt of their answers.
